NOTICES

The Director on Duty the weekend of August 17 is Debbie Supplee.

ART LESSONS: Registration is now open for the upcoming series of classes including drawing and painting, watercolor and acrylic. Choose morning (9am-12pm) or afternoon (1pm-4pm). Drop in fee of $20 per class or $200 for 12-week session. Classes begin Tuesday, September 11, in the Art Studio. The first day, new students will discuss goals of the class and the returning residents can start painting the first day. Instructor is Anne Milner, fine artist. If you are interested, please sign up in the Welcome Center. Any questions, call Anne Milner at 610-715-9879 or anne@annemilner.net.

RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE invites you to attend their upcoming meeting on Tuesday, September 11 at 9:45am in the rear of the Tavern. We are a welcoming group of residents who will value your input. This committee provides the Vespers services on many Sunday evenings and Hymn Sings in the Auditorium, as well as offering several Bible Studies during the week and so much more! Will you join us?

YAPPY HOUR: Your four-legged canine companions on leash are encouraged to bring their human friends for specialty cocktails including the Pink Poodle and the Regal Beagle on Friday, August 24 at 3:00pm on the Library Patio. Additional information is posted on the Clubhouse easel and Welcome Center.

LABOR DAY CROQUET TOURNAMENT: The sign-up sheet is now available in the Welcome Center. Space is limited. Don't miss your chance to participate; sign up today. The dates are Friday, August 31; Saturday, September 1; Monday, September 3.

"BACK TO SCHOOL" SCHOLARSHIP letters go out soon. Check your mailbox and return the form in the envelope. A monetary donation embraces a gift of education to WHV employees and a gift of remembrance through honoring a friend or loved one, checks payable to WHV Endowment Fund.

IF YOU ARE A "PRESIDENTIAL BUFF" OR "FOODIE" you'll want to join us as Chef John Moeller, White House Chef, shares stories and memorable moments cooking for three first families on Wednesday, September 5, at 4pm in the Auditorium. Dinner in Steeplechase and the Grille will be inspired by his recipes. His book Dining at the White House: From the President's Table to Yours, will be available for purchase.

SIGN-UP FOR FRIENDSHIP GAMES: Sign-up to participate in any of the nine events. The deadline to sign-up is Friday, September 7. A random drawing of all who sign-up will determine who represents WHV. The WHV team will be announced on Monday, September 10. The 2018 Friendship Games takes place on Friday, October 5, at Waverly Heights. Go White Horse Village!

BRIDGE LESSONS: "Defense in the 21st Century" begins on September 12, 9:30-11:30am, in the Clubroom. This is a 10-week session taught by Peg Woolard, American Contract Bridge League (ACBL) Accredited Bridge Teacher. To register and for more information, contact Peg Woolard at 610-544-6987 or pwool1@verizon.net.

GIFT BASKET DONATIONS: You should have received a letter describing how donations will be handled for Octofair Gift Baskets. As always, thank you for being so generous and supporting 2018 Octofair, which benefits Resident Activities. Please consider being a coordinator and offering your home as a collection site.

BIDDING, MELDS & TRICKS: If you recognize these terms then we would love for you to join us for Pinochle in the Club Room on Thursdays at 1:30pm. Card games have a number of physical and/or social benefits for you such as; social interaction, friendly competition, and helps improve your fine motor and memory skills. Won't you join us?

ATTENTION WHITE HORSE ARTISTS: Our talented White Horse residents are invited to display one piece of artwork for September's exhibit in the Art Gallery. If paintings require a frame, they must be ready to hang with appropriate wire. Please stop by the Welcome Center to pick up forms for identifying artwork including artist's name, title of painting and price if artwork is for sale. Forms should be returned to Carol Palermo-V215.

PLEASE TAKE A MOMENT to look at your Power of Attorney and Advanced Directive (living will) documents to make sure that they are all up-to-date. Please be advised that a WHV employee may not serve as Power of Attorney for a WHV resident. Thank you!

PERFORMING ARTS presents an evening of Opera and Song on Wednesday, September 19, at 7pm in the Auditorium; starring AVA Artists Meryl Dominguez-soprano, Mackenzie Gotcher-tenor, Luke Housner-piano.

DINING OPTIONS: Did you know WHV offers an alternate menu in all dining areas? Menu available to view on Channel 1970.

THANK YOU CORNER

Wow, what wonderful people live in WHV. The support I've had with my fractured knee was remarkable. Thanks to all the staff, nurses, aides, physical therapists, occupational therapists, residents and beyond. What a wonderful place to live. Susan Hawthorne-S121

TRIPS & TRAVELS

Please sign up for trips at the Front Desk Monday through Friday.
Let Laurena know if you need a ride to the Clubhouse.

EXPLORE WILDLIFE EXHIBITS AT THE PHILADELPHIA ZOO: Join us on a trip to America's first zoo on Tuesday, September 11. Cost is $28.00 for admission and transportation; lunch on your own at one of the many Cafés. Bus departs at 9:00am and returns home at 2:00pm. This trip requires a lot of walking, but we are lucky to have experienced docents to lead us. Philadelphia Zoo is thrilled to welcome a new baby giraffe named Beau. Join us to meet him! Trip fills up fast; sign up today.

FINGER LAKES: WHV is invited to join Maris Grove and Touriffic Travel on a three nights' stay in Canandaigua, New York on October 5, 6, 7, & 8. This trip includes three nights' accommodations, three hot & cold breakfast buffets, three dinners, tours of local attractions including Sonnenberg Gardens & Mansion, Corning Museum of Glass, Seneca Winery Trail as well as Canandaigua Lady Cruise & Center.
